It is not just a story about serial killers, but a story about living and breathing humans who “pursue” them. Dramatized stories based on accounts told by profilers at the scene of the murders.

It tells the story of Yoo Young-cheol, South Korea’s most notorious serial killer, who murdered 70 people. It captures his brutal and bone-chilling methods of killing and the efforts that led up to his arrest. The story of Kang Ho-soon, whose female-centric crimes left 10 women dead. It is an unbelievable tale of a serial killer who bragged about researching ways to mutilate corpses, and how human organs tasted.

We open this Pandora’s box to reveal the secrets that go beyond anyone’s imagination..
